A DAYS PACKAGE PROPOSAL

BEYOND THE POSTCARD

Raja Ampat.

Five days in West Papua, where the karst islands rise straight out of the reef and the water does most of the talking.

DATES

21–25 Feb 2027

LENGTH

5 days · 4 nights

FLIGHTS

Bali – Sorong – Bali

01 — WHY NOW

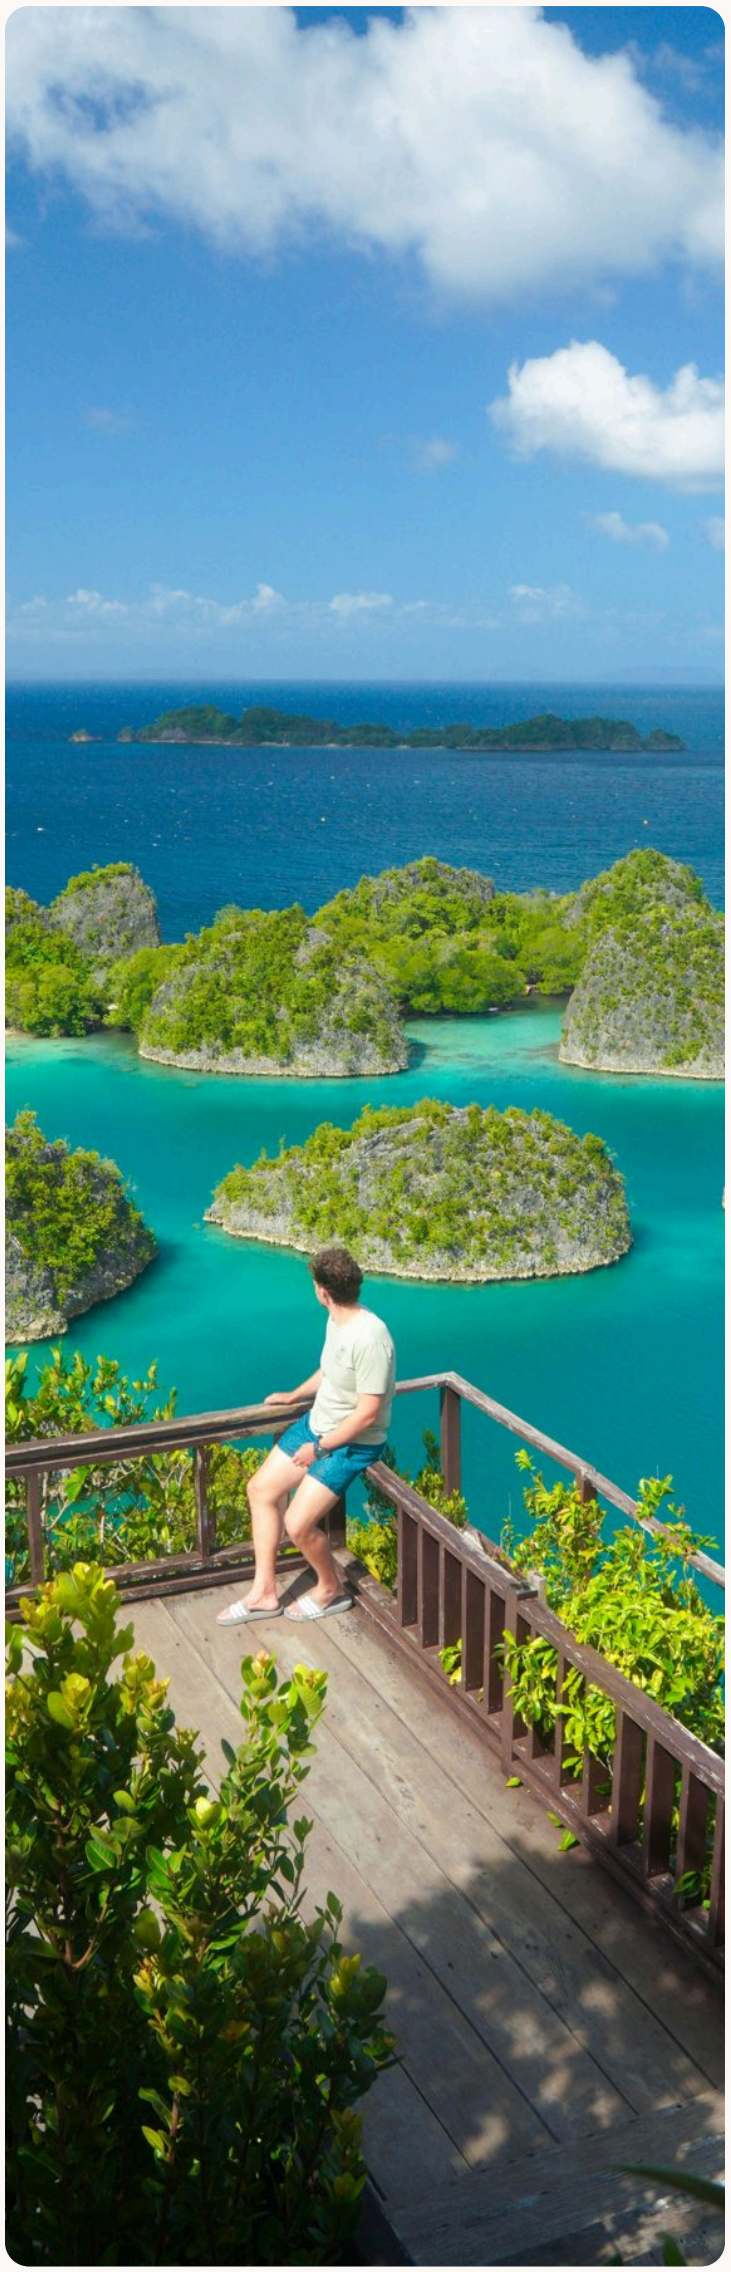

You've seen the photo. This is the trip.

Everyone knows the Piaynemo shot. Very few people have stood at the top of those steps early, before the boats arrive, with the lagoons laid out below like someone spilled the sea in two shades of blue.

Raja Ampat sits at the top of the Coral Triangle — more species of coral and reef fish than anywhere else on earth. It's remote enough that it still feels like a discovery — and from Bali, it's one domestic route away.

February is calm-water season. Clear visibility, easy crossings, long light. We've built five days around the four places that matter most: Piaynemo, Batanta, Kabui and Kalibiru.

> Some places are meant to be seen. Raja Ampat is meant to be in.

03 — THE DAYS

Five days, four islands

DAY 1
21 FEB

Arrival

SORONG → RAJA AMPAT

Bali to Sorong, then across the water into the islands. The rest of the afternoon is yours — the first sunset sets the tone for everything after.

DAY 2
22 FEB

Piaynemo

PIAYNEMO · ARBOREK · PASIR TIMBUL

The climb to the Piaynemo lookout: the karst view everyone has seen, now without a screen between you and it. Then Arborek, a village that lives on and with the reef, and Pasir Timbul — a sandbar that exists only when the tide allows.

DAY 3
23 FEB

The reefs

WARINGKABOM · SAWANDAREK · YENBUBA · FRIWEN MONDA

A day in the water. Jetty reefs and channel drop-offs, back to back, at the heart of the most biodiverse marine region on the planet. Bring the underwater camera.

DAY 4
24 FEB

Kabui

KABUI BAY · MARINDAL HILL · MAYALIBIT · KALIBIRU

Narrow passages between limestone walls through Kabui Bay, a trek up Marindal Hill, the still water of Mayalibit, and Kalibiru to close out the last full day.

DAY 5
25 FEB

Departure

RAJA AMPAT → SORONG → BALI

One last swim if the morning allows, then back to Sorong for the flight home to Bali.

04 — WHERE YOU STAY
