DAYS

Seven DAYS in Sunny June

THE HANDBOOK · BARCELONA · JUNE 2026

Primavera.

You booked this trip because of the lineup.
You'll stay because of the city.
Barcelona in June is something else entirely.

FESTIVAL	LOCATION	VIBE
Primavera Sound 2026	Parc del Fòrum, BCN	Mediterranean chaos

INSIDE

The guide.

Everything we'd tell a friend flying in for the festival — where to eat, where to drink, which neighbourhood to wander, and how to get to the Fòrum and back. Built by DAYS so you spend zero time searching and all of it being there.

03 Before you land — QUICK TIPS

04 Barcelona, decoded — THE CITY

05 Where to eat — RESTAURANTS

09 The real Barcelona — TAPAS BARS

11 Stay out late — BARS & DRINKS

13 Primavera Sound — THE FESTIVAL

14 On the ground — LOGISTICS

QUICK TIPS

Before you land.

Everything you need to know before you touch down in Barcelona.

TIME

Barcelona eats late

Lunch is 2–4pm. Dinner kicks off at 9pm. Don't be the table asking for dinner at 7.

BOOK

Book or queue

For Paradiso, Sips, Disfrutar and El Xampanyet — either book weeks in advance or arrive when they open.

FEST

Festival hours

Primavera runs afternoon through 3am. Pace yourself. The best sets are always after midnight.

MOVE

Getting around

Metro until midnight weekdays, 2am Fri, all night Sat. After that: Uber or taxi. Poblenou to El Born is 30 minutes.

CASH

Cash is still king

Smaller tapas bars and old-school spots often prefer cash. Keep €50–€100 on you at all times.

WEAR

Dress for two climates

Barcelona in June: warm sunny days (24–28°C), balmy evenings. Light layers for the coastal breeze at the beach stage.

THE CITY

Barcelona, decoded.

Barcelona rewards the curious and punishes the timid. It's a city of neighbourhoods that feel like separate cities — each with its own pace, its own regulars, its own rules.

El Poblenou

WHERE THE FESTIVAL LIVES

The old industrial district that grew into a creative hub. Parc del Fòrum is here. The Rambla del Poblenou is the neighbourhood's spine — cafés, bars, easy energy. Henry's Bar and el 58 are both here.

El Born

COCKTAILS & CAVA

Medieval streets, the Picasso Museum, and Barcelona's best bar scene. Paradiso, El Xampanyet, Cal Pep, Bar del Pla. El Born is where most nights end up.

Barceloneta

SEAFOOD & BEACH

The old fishing neighbourhood between the city and the sea. Back streets hold old-school tapas bars and fish that was in the water this morning. La Cova Fumada and Jai Ca are here.

Eixample

GAUDÍ & GREAT BARS

The city's orderly grid neighbourhood. Casa Batlló and La Sagrada Família are here. So are Sips, Dry Martini, Bandini's, Disfrutar, Mont Bar, and Gresca.

Poble Sec

THE LOCAL SECRET

Where Barcelona that hasn't been gentrified yet survives. Quimet y Quimet and Xemei are here. The bar stools are small, the montaditos are brilliant.

Sant Antoni

THE CREATIVE QUARTER

A neighbourhood in transition — in the best way. Coffee shops, natural wine bars, and chef-driven bistros have clustered around the Sant Antoni market.

Gràcia

VILLAGE WITHIN THE CITY

Narrow streets, bohemian bars, square culture. Fonda Pepa and Brugarol are here. Great for aperitivo hour before heading further into the city.

RESTAURANTS

Where to eat.

Twelve picks across every neighbourhood. Two are certified Dua Lipa favourites. All are worth your time.

12 PICKS · ALL NEIGHBOURHOODS

DL

Dua Lipa's Barcelona favourites

Gresca and Xemei — she comes back every visit. Book these two before anything else.

01

DUA LIPA

Gresca

EIXAMPLE · MODERN CATALAN

Dua Lipa's most-visited Barcelona restaurant

Chef Rafa Peña — winner of the Premi Nacional de Gastronomia 2023 — runs this intimate Eixample spot with an open kitchen and a bar counter where you watch everything happen. Marinated anchovies, scrambled eggs with wild garlic and prawns, octopus carpaccio, and a torrija dessert that's become mythic. Dua Lipa has been back multiple times, sitting at the bar while the chef explains every dish.

02

DUA LIPA

Xemei

POBLE SEC · VENETIAN

Dua Lipa's other Barcelona obsession

Venetian twins Stefano and Max Colombo brought the real cooking of Venice to Barcelona — sarde in saor, baccalà mantecato, and grilled baby squid with polenta. Dua Lipa has returned here on multiple visits for the pasta and the tiramisu. Considered the best Italian restaurant in the city. Organic wine list, cozy terrace on Passeig de l'Exposició.

03

SPLURGE

Disfrutar

EIXAMPLE · AVANT-GARDE CATALAN

Barcelona's most creative kitchen, full stop

Three-Michelin-star restaurant run by alumni of elBulli. Each dish is a concept — from the signature caviar-filled panchino to the liquid salad. Playful yet precise, balancing technique and flavour in a way that feels inventive but genuinely satisfying. Book months ahead.

04

MUST TRY

Maleducat

EIXAMPLE · MODERN CATALAN

A bold, no-rules kind of place

Seasonal Catalan dishes with punchy flavours, a bit unexpected, and the kind of spot you leave thinking about what you just ate. The cooking is confident without being showy — proper ingredients, properly treated.

05

SEAFOOD

Besta

EL BORN · SEAFOOD

Elevated yet effortless

A seafood-focused restaurant where Galician and Catalan influences come together in a way that's refined but still warm and inviting. The arroz negro and the daily fish are the reasons you come. The reason you return is harder to name.

06

CHEF'S PICK

Brugarol

GRÀCIA · FIRE & PRODUCE

Everything feels intentional

A beautifully designed space where produce-driven plates meet open-fire cooking that brings out deep, honest flavours. The scallop tartare with cured egg yolk is the kind of dish that redefines a single ingredient. Book ahead.

07

LOCAL PICK

La Bonaigua

EIXAMPLE · STEAKHOUSE

The steak speaks for itself

Perfectly matured beef, simply executed, all about the quality of the product rather than anything overcomplicated. The kind of place carnivores bookmark and return to every trip. Go hungry.

08

CASUAL

Casa Amalia

GRÀCIA · SEAFOOD & PAELLA

Market-style Barcelona energy

Seafood-led dishes served with the kind of comforting, no-fuss warmth that makes you feel like a local. The real standout is the paella — rich, deeply flavourful, and the kind you'd come back for without overthinking the rest of the menu.

09

CLASSIC

Cañete

RAVAL · TAPAS COUNTER

Best experienced at the counter

Where everything moves fast and feels alive — the grilled carabineros are a standout, sweet and smoky with just enough char, alongside silky seafood dishes that keep it classic but never boring.

10

ESSENTIAL

Estimar

EL BORN · ELEVATED SEAFOOD

Where El Bulli lives on — in a marisquería

Head chef Rafa Zafra is an El Bulli graduate who transformed the traditional seafood restaurant into something refined and market-fresh. Galician razor clams, Cantabrian anchovies, the famous onion & crayfish carpaccio. Book weeks ahead.

11

MUST TRY

Mont Bar

EIXAMPLE · MODERN TAPAS

Where the food critics eat on their nights off

A fresh take on fine dining without the ceremony. Mont Bar's small plates rotate with the seasons. Intimate, excellent wine list, great energy at the bar.

12

LOCAL PICK

Franca

EIXAMPLE DRETA · MODERN CATALAN

Local and very current at the same time

Catalan dishes reworked in thrilling modern ways. The space is welcoming, the cooking always surprises in a good way. You never know what the dish will look like when it arrives. Roger de Llúria 46.

TAPAS BARS

The real Barcelona.

The tapas bar is where Barcelona actually lives. Stand at the bar. Order two or three things. Move on. That's how you do it.

12 PICKS · FROM LEGENDARY TO LOCAL

01 ICONIC

El Xampanyet

EL BORN

ORDER House cava + anchovies

The original old-school cava bar, pouring since 1929. Always packed, always worth it. Order the house cava and whatever's on the counter. This is Barcelona in a glass.

02 LEGENDARY

Quimet y Quimet

POBLE SEC

ORDER Salmon montadito with honey

Standing room only, tins of conservas stacked floor to ceiling, brilliant montaditos. The salmon tapa with honey is the one. Go early — they close when they run out.

03 ORIGINAL

La Cova Fumada

BARCELONETA

ORDER The original bomba

Dating back to 1944. No sign on the door, no menu — just a blackboard. This is where the bomba was invented. Worth every bit of the effort to find it.

04 SEAFOOD

Cal Pep

EL BORN

ORDER Whatever Pep is cooking that day

The legendary seafood counter where the bar seats are the best in the house and the kitchen decides what's good that day. Trust the process.

05 FESTIVAL ZONE

el 58

POBLENOU

ORDER Razor clams, duck magret, pulpo

Right on the Rambla del Poblenou — walking distance from the festival. Menu on a blackboard, terrace out back. No reservations, so show up or miss out.

06 CROWD PLEASER

Cerveceria Catalana

EIXAMPLE

ORDER Montaditos, grilled prawns

The most-reviewed tapas bar in Barcelona. Long bar, wide selection, consistent quality. Fast service. No reservations — queue at peak hours but it moves quickly.

07 NATURAL WINE

Bar del Pla

EL BORN

ORDER Natural wine + market special

Over 30 natural wines, brilliant tapas, and sommeliers who know their stuff. The go-to before a night in El Born. Sits just metres from El Xampanyet.

08 HISTORIC

Bodega La Puntual

EL BORN

ORDER Arroz de Pluma Ibérica

In an 1872 coffee roaster building on Carrer de Montcada. A casual oyster bar at the entrance; a larger room for groups further inside.

09 INSTITUTION

Paco Meralgo

EIXAMPLE ESQUERRA

ORDER Ondarroa anchovies, Cíes clams

The seafood-tapas institution of the Eixample. Marinated anchovies from Ondarroa and razor clams from the Cíes Islands are the headliners.

10 OLD SCHOOL

Jai Ca

BARCELONETA

ORDER Bombas, bravas, cod fritters

Classic tapas bar in the old fishing district. Earthy, no-nonsense. The bombas here are the standard all others are judged against.

11 ALL DAY

Bar Bocata

SARRIÀ-SANT GERVASI

ORDER Tortilla with caramelised onion

From breakfast through late dinner, Bar Bocata delivers all day. The tortilla with soft caramelised onion is non-negotiable. Book ahead.

12 CLASSIC

Bar Cañete

RAVAL

ORDER Fresh Catalan seafood, seasonal

Near the Gran Teatre del Liceu. Family-run kitchen using fish fresh from Catalan markets. Beautifully executed classics, lively room.

BARS & DRINKS

Stay out late.

Barcelona's bar scene is world-class. The cocktail movement here is technical and serious, the natural wine scene is booming, the vermouth culture is real, and the old cava bars have been doing their thing for decades.

12 PICKS · COCKTAILS · WINE · BEER · ROOFTOP

01 Paradiso EL BORN — WORLD'S BEST

Enter through a fake paella fridge in a sandwich shop. Inside: one of the world's best cocktail bars. Conceptual menus, extraordinary technique. Also has a rooftop at Time Out Market. Queue early — no reservations at the original.

02 Sips EIXAMPLE — TOP 50

Consistently top-50 in the world. Conceptual and precise cocktails in a sleek room on Carrer de Muntaner. Book ahead or queue. 45-minute sitting per round — make every drink count.

03 Dry Martini EIXAMPLE — INSTITUTION

Founded in 1978. Wood, leather, brass — and over 1.5 million martinis served. Still the best classic bar in the city. Sophisticated but never stuffy.

04 Dr. Stravinsky EL BORN — ECCENTRIC

Designed like the lab of a mad chemist, named after a character from The Master & Margarita. Plants everywhere, drinks served in flower vases.

05 Bandini's EIXAMPLE — NATTY WINE

The funkiest natural wine selection in the city, plus seasonal small plates. Try a local pet-nat from Catalonia. Young, local, knowing crowd.

06 Henry's Bar POBLENOU — FESTIVAL ZONE

Calls itself a dive bar, but the cocktails are considered and the sunny terrace is exactly right for a festival afternoon. Carrer de la Llacuna 92 — festival zone.

07 Les Gens que J'aime EIXAMPLE DRETA — LATE NIGHT

Below street level, fringed lampshades, velvet sofas, jazz. Whiskey sours are the move. One of those bars you stumble into at 10pm and leave at 2am.

08 Monvínic EIXAMPLE — WINE GEEK

3,500 vintages, a vertical garden, a reference library, and a tablet wine list. Called 'Wineworld' in Catalan for good reason.

09 Garage Beer Co POBLENOU — CRAFT BEER

Three locations: city-centre bar, a beachfront spot in Poblenou, and a brewery in Sant Andreu. The Poblenou outpost is the natural festival companion.

10 Azimuth Rooftop EIXAMPLE — ROOFTOP

Seasonal rooftop with a pool, panoramic Barcelona views, and an inventive cocktail menu. Open May–September. Exactly where you want to be on a warm afternoon.

11 Libertine EIXAMPLE (CASA BONAY) — LATE NIGHT

A Top 50 Discovery bar inside Casa Bonay, open until 3am on weekends. Upstairs there's a rooftop spa with sauna and hammam.

12 El Quim de la Boqueria RAVAL — MORNING

A counter inside La Boqueria where the chef cooks eggs with baby squid and whatever is freshest. Opens early, closes when it's done. Best breakfast in the city.

THE CLASSIC BARCELONA NIGHT

5pm	Vermouth and montaditos at Quimet y Quimet or Bar del Pla
9pm	Dinner — tapas bar-hop El Born or a table at Gresca / Mont Bar
11pm	Cocktails at Paradiso (queue) or Sips (book ahead)
1am	Head to Poblenou for the festival's late headliners
3am	Whatever happens, happens

THE FESTIVAL

Primavera Sound.

Parc del Fòrum is a concrete plaza jutting into the Mediterranean. At night, with the stages lit up and the sea behind everything, it's one of the most striking festival settings in the world.

IN

Arrival

Gates open from 4pm. The early sets are worth catching — smaller stages, fewer people, musicians who are genuinely happy to be there.

EAT

Eating & drinking

The food at Primavera is actually good. Pro move: eat a proper dinner before 8pm and graze inside.

STAGE

The main stage

The main stage faces the sea. For big acts, get there 30 minutes early or accept a great view from further back. Both are valid.

SET

Stage logistics

Multiple stages run simultaneously. Download the app, build your schedule, but leave gaps — the best moments are often accidental.

AM

The late hours

11pm to 3am is when Primavera turns into something else entirely. The sets get longer, and the festival earns its reputation.

KIT

What to wear

Comfortable shoes you won't regret at 2am. A light jacket for the sea breeze. One bag with a secure pocket for your phone and wallet.

LOGISTICS

On the ground.

Airport, metro, money and data — the practical bit, so the rest can be anything but.

From the airport

Barcelona El Prat (BCN) is 30–40 minutes from the city centre. The Aerobus runs to Plaça Catalunya every 10 minutes. Taxi is a fixed fare (~€35). Uber also works.

Getting around

The metro covers most of the city. T-Casual 10-trip card is the best value. Poblenou/El Fòrum is on the L4 line (yellow). Metro runs all night on Saturdays.

Festival transport

Parc del Fòrum is right at El Maresme | Fòrum station on the L4. Walking from El Born takes about 30 minutes along the waterfront.

Money

Spain is largely card-friendly, but old-school tapas bars prefer cash. Revolut or Wise cards are ideal — no foreign transaction fees. Keep €50–€100 in your wallet.

Phone & data

Indonesian SIMs won't have EU roaming by default. Pick up a local SIM at the airport (Vodafone or Orange), or check your provider before you leave.

DAYS CONTACT

Your DAYS trip lead is on WhatsApp throughout the trip. If anything goes sideways — accommodation, tickets, logistics — that's your first call.

DAYS

SEVEN DAYS IN SUNNY JUNE

You didn't book this trip to tick a box. You booked it because the lineup hit different, because Barcelona in June is its own kind of argument, and because you know the difference between going somewhere and actually being there.

We built this guide so you spend zero time figuring out where to eat, drink, or be — and all your time doing exactly that. The rest is yours.